Executive Summary

Home textiles and furnishing sector forms a significant portion of overall textile industry. The sector offers a wide range of bedspreads, furnishing fabrics, curtains, rugs, carpets, placemats, cushion covers, table covers, linen, kitchen accessories, made-ups, bed spreads, bath linen, and other home furnishings accessories. Over the past 5 years, consumption of home textile and furnishings witnessed consistent growth driven by factors like rising consumer spending on home renovation, accelerating investments on infrastructure, demand from Asian markets like India, China, Korea and Indonesia. Product innovation and development has allowed retailers and manufactures to widen the market, using new technologies and advanced marketing approaches.

The USA and Europe dominate the home furnishing market as largest consumers, while countries like India, China and Pakistan feature amongst key suppliers. Curtains constitute the largest sub segment of home textiles followed by textile floorings, bed linen, towels and table, toilet & kitchen linen. Major fabrics being used include cotton, organic- cotton, polyester, silk, poly- cotton, poly –silk, natural fibers like bamboos, viscose-silk.

Retail sales of home furnishings are expected to maintain relatively consistent growth in coming years. Economic recovery is expected to reduce the unemployment rate, generate GDP growth and strengthen the housing market, all of which will boost sales of home furnishings products. Moreover, emergence of E-commerce in home furnishings market is scaling new heights, and with increasing number shopping websites the market is also experiencing growth. Key issues in the market include rising raw material prices, strict legislative requirements and high competition.
