Research Summary

Budget apps, also known as personal finance apps or budgeting apps, are mobile or web-based applications designed to help individuals manage their finances effectively. These apps provide users with tools and features to track income, expenses, savings, and investments in a convenient and organized manner. They often offer features such as expense categorization, bill reminders, budget goal setting, and visualizations of spending patterns. Budget apps can sync with bank accounts, credit cards, and other financial accounts to automatically import transactions and provide real-time updates on financial status. They enable users to gain insights into their spending habits, set budgets, and make informed financial decisions. Some budget apps also offer additional features like debt tracking, investment management, and financial goal planning. Overall, budget apps serve as valuable tools for individuals seeking to gain better control over their finances, improve their saving habits, and achieve their financial goals.

The major global suppliers of Budget Apps include YNAB (You Need a Budget), Finicity, Quicken, Intuit, The Infinite Kind, The Infinite Kind, Oportun, Acorns, Ramsey Solutions, PocketGuard, Zeta, Goodbudget, NerdWallet, The Balance, etc. The global players
