Research Summary

Business travel insurance is a specialized insurance product designed to provide coverage and protection for individuals who travel for business purposes. It offers financial protection against a range of risks and unexpected events that can occur during business trips. Business travel insurance typically includes coverage for medical emergencies, trip cancellation or interruption, lost or delayed baggage, travel delays, and personal liability. This type of insurance is tailored to the specific needs of business travelers, taking into account factors such as frequent travel, high-value business equipment, and potential risks associated with international travel. Business travel insurance provides peace of mind to both employers and employees, ensuring that individuals are adequately protected while on business trips and minimizing the financial impact of unforeseen circumstances. It is often purchased as an additional policy or as part of a comprehensive corporate travel insurance program, depending on the requirements and preferences of the organization.

The major global suppliers of Business Travel Insurance include Pin An, AIG, PICC,

Allianz, CPIC, PICC, AIA, AXA, TaiKang, Chubb, etc. The global players competition landscape in this report is divided into three tiers.
