Research Summary

Freelance platforms are online marketplaces that connect businesses and individuals with freelancers, offering a platform for the exchange of services and expertise. These platforms provide a space for employers to post projects and for freelancers to bid on or apply for those projects based on their skills and expertise. Services offered on freelance platforms span a wide range, including graphic design, writing, programming, marketing, and more. Popular freelance platforms often incorporate features such as project tracking, payment processing, and communication tools to facilitate collaboration between clients and freelancers. Examples of freelance platforms include Upwork, Fiverr, and Freelancer. These platforms have transformed the way businesses and freelancers collaborate, offering flexibility and opportunities for individuals to work on a project-by-project basis, and providing businesses access to a global pool of talent.

The major global suppliers of Freelance Platforms include Fiverr, Upwork, Freelancer.com, Envato Studio, PeoplePerHour, Toptal, Guru.com, DesignCrowd, Nexxt, DesignContest, TaskRabbit, CrowdSPRING, Dribbble Hiring, WriterAccess,
