Research Summary

An installment payment solution in the realm of merchant services refers to a financial service that enables customers to make purchases and pay for them over time through a series of scheduled installments, rather than making a single upfront payment. This solution allows merchants to offer flexible payment options to their customers, potentially increasing sales by reducing the barrier to purchase. Customers benefit from the ability to spread out the cost of their purchases, making higher-priced items more accessible. Installment payment solutions typically involve partnerships between merchants, financial institutions, and payment processing providers, who facilitate the installment payment process by managing payment plans, processing transactions, and collecting payments from customers according to agreed-upon terms. Overall, installment payment solutions provide a convenient and attractive payment option for both merchants and customers, enhancing the shopping experience and driving business growth.

The major global suppliers of Installment Payment Solution (Merchant Services) include Splitit, AsiaPay, Elavon, Flo2Cash, CyberSource (Visa), Komoju (Degica), Omise, etc. The global players competition landscape in this report is divided into three tiers.
