Research Summary

Jewelry, also known as jewellery in British English, encompasses a wide range of decorative items worn for personal adornment. It includes accessories crafted from various materials such as precious metals like gold and silver, gemstones, and other elements. Jewelry can take diverse forms, including rings, necklaces, earrings, bracelets, and brooches. Beyond its aesthetic appeal, jewelry often holds cultural, religious, or symbolic significance, serving as a means of self-expression or as a marker of social status. The artistry and craftsmanship involved in creating jewelry make it a unique and cherished form of wearable art, blending both fashion and personal meaning for those who wear it.

The major global manufacturers of Jewellery include Stuller, The Pearl Company, MIKIMOTO, GELLNER, Jeweler, RIO PEARL, The Freshwater Pearl Company, Sullivan's S&S Jewelers, Papelera Commercial (Taiwan) Ltd., Zursana Jewelry Co., Ltd., Rocket Industrial Co., Ltd., Wollet Magnetic Jewelry Co., Ltd., etc. The global players competition landscape in this report is divided into three tiers. The first tier comprises global leading enterprises that command a substantial market share, hold a dominant industry position, possess strong competitiveness and influence, and generate significant revenue. The second tier includes companies with a notable market presence and reputation; these firms actively follow industry leaders in product, service, or technological innovation and maintain a moderate revenue scale. The third tier consists of smaller companies with limited market share and lower brand recognition, primarily focused on local markets and generating comparatively lower revenue.

This report studies the market size, price trends and future development prospects of Jewellery. Focus on analysing the market share, product portfolio, prices, sales, revenue and gross profit margin of global major manufacturers, as well as the market status and trends of different product types and applications in the global Jewellery market. The report data covers historical data from 2020 to 2024, based year in 2025 and forecast data from 2026 to 2032.

The regions and countries in the report include North America, Europe, China, APAC (excl.
