Market Overview

According to DIResearch's in-depth investigation and research, the global Office Chairs market size will reach 12,813 Million USD in 2025 and is projected to reach 17,170 Million USD by 2032, with a CAGR of 4.27% (2025-2032). Notably, the China Office Chairs market has changed rapidly in the past few years. By 2025, China's market size is expected to be Million USD, representing approximately % of the global market share.

Research Summary

Office chairs are specially designed seating furniture intended for use in office environments. They are ergonomically structured to provide comfort and support for individuals who spend significant amounts of time sitting at a desk or workstation. Office chairs typically feature adjustable components such as seat height, backrest angle, armrest height, and lumbar support, allowing users to customize the chair to their preferences and maintain proper posture. These chairs often have padding and upholstery materials for added comfort, while the base usually includes wheels for easy mobility around the workspace. Office chairs promote good posture, reduce strain on the body, and help prevent musculoskeletal issues that can arise from prolonged sitting. They play a vital role in creating a conducive work environment, enhancing productivity, and supporting overall well-being for office workers.

The major global manufacturers of Office Chairs include Steelcase, Herman Miller, Haworth, HNI Group, Okamura Corporation, Kimball Office, AURORA, TopStar, True Innovations, Bristol, Nowy Styl, SUNON GROUP, Knoll, UE Furniture, Quama Group, UB Office Systems, KI, Global Group, Kinnarps Holding, King Hong Industrial, Teknion, Kokuyo, AIS, PSI Seating, ITOKI, CHUENG SHINE, Lifeform Furniture Manufacturing, Elite Office Furniture, Foshan Long Ma Office Furniture, izzy+, etc. The global players competition landscape in this report is divided into three tiers. The first tier comprises global leading enterprises that command a substantial market share, hold a dominant industry position, possess strong competitiveness and influence, and generate significant revenue. The second tier includes companies with a notable market presence and reputation; these firms actively follow industry leaders in product, service, or technological innovation and maintain a moderate revenue scale. The third tier consists of smaller companies with limited market share and lower brand recognition, primarily focused on local markets and generating comparatively lower revenue.

This report studies the market size, price trends and future development prospects of Office Chairs. Focus on analysing the market share, product portfolio, prices, sales, revenue and gross profit margin of global major manufacturers, as well as the market status and trends of different product types and applications in the global Office Chairs market. The report data covers historical data from 2020 to 2024, based year in 2025 and forecast data from 2026 to 2032.
