Notably, the China Same-day Delivery market has changed rapidly in the past few years. By 2025, China's market size is expected to be Million USD, representing approximately % of the global market share.

Research Summary

Same-day delivery is a service offered by retailers and logistics companies that guarantees the delivery of goods or packages within the same day that they are ordered. This expedited shipping option has become increasingly popular in recent years, driven by consumer demand for faster delivery times and greater convenience. Same-day delivery relies on efficient logistics networks, strategically located distribution centers, and advanced tracking technologies to ensure timely delivery. It is commonly used for a wide range of products, including groceries, household items, electronics, and clothing, catering to customers who require immediate access to goods without having to wait for traditional shipping timelines. Same-day delivery services vary in availability and cost depending on the retailer and location, with some offering free same-day delivery for certain orders or membership programs.

The major global suppliers of Same-day Delivery include FedEx, UPS, Deutsche Post World Net, Nippon Express, Ryder System, Expeditors International, Panalpina, SF, EMS, ZJS Express, YTO, ZTO, Royal Mail, BestExpress, LuckaBox Logistics, DHL,

United States Postal Service, Amazon, etc. The global players competition landscape in this report is divided into three tiers. The first tier comprises global leading enterprises that command a substantial market share, hold a dominant industry position, possess strong competitiveness and influence, and generate significant revenue. The second tier includes companies with a notable market presence and reputation; these firms actively follow industry leaders in product, service, or technological innovation and maintain a moderate revenue scale. The third tier consists of smaller companies with limited market share and lower brand recognition, primarily focused on local markets and generating comparatively lower revenue.

This report studies the market size, price trends and future development prospects of Same-day Delivery. Focus on analysing the market share, product portfolio, prices, sales, revenue and gross profit margin of global major suppliers, as well as the market status and trends of different product types and applications in the global Same-day Delivery market.
