Research Summary

Share registry services involve the management and maintenance of a company's shareholder register, which records information about its shareholders, including their names, contact details, shareholdings, and transaction history. These services are typically provided by specialized companies or registrar agents appointed by the company to administer its share registry functions. Share registry services play a crucial role in facilitating communication between companies and their shareholders, managing share transactions such as transfers, sales, and purchases, and ensuring compliance with regulatory requirements related to shareholder disclosure and reporting. Additionally, share registry services may offer ancillary services such as dividend payments, shareholder communications, and corporate actions processing, contributing to efficient shareholder management and investor relations.

The major global suppliers of Share Registry Services include Computershare, Equiniti, EQ (AST), Link Group, Boardroom, Automic Group, Tricor, Advanced Share Registry, Apex (Mainstream), Central Depository Company, etc. The global players competition landscape in this report is divided into three tiers.
