Market Overview

According to DIResearch's in-depth investigation and research, the global Sport Jackets market size will reach 2,846.57 Million USD in 2025 and is projected to reach 3,973.48 Million USD by 2032, with a CAGR of 4.88% (2025-2032). Notably, the China Sport Jackets market has changed rapidly in the past few years. By 2025, China's market size is expected to be Million USD, representing approximately % of the global market share.

Research Summary

Sport jackets, also known as sports jackets or blazers, are tailored jackets that are less formal than suit jackets but more structured than casual outerwear. They are designed to be worn without matching trousers, offering versatility in both casual and semi-formal settings. Sport jackets typically feature a variety of fabrics, including tweed, wool, linen, and cotton, and come in a range of colors and patterns, such as checks, plaids, and herringbone. They often include details like elbow patches, contrasting buttons, and multiple pockets. The cut of a sport jacket allows for ease of movement, making it a stylish yet practical option for various occasions, from business-casual environments to social gatherings. Their ability to be paired with different types of trousers, jeans, or chinos adds to their appeal as a wardrobe staple for men seeking a blend of sophistication and comfort.

The major global manufacturers of Sport Jackets include Nike, Adidas, Puma, Skechers, Under Armour, Mizuno, VF, Guirenniao, Billabong, Anta, Li-Ning, BasicNet, ASICS, Xtep, 361 Degrees, Lululemon, Peak, etc. The global players competition landscape in this report is divided into three tiers. The first tier comprises global leading enterprises that command a substantial market share, hold a dominant industry position, possess strong competitiveness and influence, and generate significant revenue. The second tier includes companies with a notable market presence and reputation; these firms actively follow industry leaders in product, service, or technological innovation and maintain a moderate revenue scale. The third tier consists of smaller companies with limited market share and lower brand recognition, primarily focused on local markets and generating comparatively lower revenue.

This report studies the market size, price trends and future development prospects of Sport Jackets. Focus on analysing the market share, product portfolio, prices, sales, revenue and gross profit margin of global major manufacturers, as well as the market status and trends of different product types and applications in the global Sport Jackets market.
