Abstracts

With the fastest ageing population in the world, Asia Pacific shows great potential for the sales of retail adult incontinence. While Japan has the oldest population and continues to contribute the largest percentage, developing countries like India and China are set to drive incontinence sales. With growing elderly population in two largest domestic markets of the world, rising income levels and spending appetites put these developing countries in good stead in driving up incontinence sales.

Euromonitor International's Adult Incontinence in Asia Pacific global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the tissue and hygiene market, highlights buzz topics, emerging regions, countries and categories as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the opportunity zones within tissue and hygiene, analyses leading companies and brands, assesses the importance of private label and offers strategic analysis of major factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, economic/lifestyle/environmental influences, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success.
