Abstracts

Although Eastern Europe lags other regions in adult incontinence, the region shows favourable demographic trends and a recovering economy. Positive macroeconomic trends coupled with increased consumer awareness and active marketing are expected to support positive growth trend over the forecast period through 2023. However, the market shows high levels of brand concentration, which can hinder variety and affordability of adult incontinence products.

Euromonitor International's Adult Incontinence in Eastern Europe global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the tissue and hygiene market, highlights buzz topics, emerging regions, countries and categories as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the opportunity zones within tissue and hygiene, analyses leading companies and brands, assesses the importance of private label and offers strategic analysis of major factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, economic/lifestyle/environmental influences, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success.

Product coverage: Away-from-Home Tissue and Hygiene, Retail Tissue and Hygiene, Rx/Reimbursement adult incontinence, Total Tissue and Hygiene.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
