Abstracts

Although Latin America is behind developed regions in per capita adult incontinence sales, it has favourable demographic trends and recovering major economies. Positive macroeconomic trends, combined with increased consumer awareness and active marketing, will lead to the region experiencing growth over the period to 2023. However, pricing and a lack of presence in some retail channels will continue to hinder market penetration.

Euromonitor International's Adult Incontinence in Latin America global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the tissue and hygiene market, highlights buzz topics, emerging regions, countries and categories as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the opportunity zones within tissue and hygiene, analyses leading companies and brands, assesses the importance of private label and offers strategic analysis of major factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, economic/lifestyle/environmental influences, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success.

Product coverage: Away-from-Home Tissue and Hygiene, Retail Tissue and Hygiene, Rx/Reimbursement adult incontinence, Total Tissue and Hygiene.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
