Abstracts

In 2023, air treatments products is set to record stable growth in retail volume terms, although the rate of growth has slowed year on year. The prevailing economic uncertainty and high cost of living is impacting demand. Air treatment products are considered somewhat of a luxury in Morocco and therefore as consumers looked to tighten their purse strings sales suffered. As such, the category was hard hit during the pandemic. The re-opening of electronics and appliance specialist retail outlets h...
