Abstracts

The number of people travelling by air continued to grow in 2023, with volumes exceeding pre-pandemic levels. Local airlines responded to the increase in demand by reopening routes that had been closed during the pandemic, as well as adding new destinations to their networks. Morocco's national airline, Royal Air Maroc (RAM), for example, announced that it would be providing 6.2 million seats on 90 global routes for its summer 2023 programme, amid a strong rebound in both business and leisure tr...
