Abstracts

In late 2021, the New Zealand Government unveiled a phased approach to reopening the country's borders post-pandemic, spanning from July to October. However, prompted by quicker reopening timelines in other nations, the government expedited the process. New Zealanders gained the ability to travel abroad from February 2022, and international tourists were welcomed back from July 2022 (with a staged reopening from March 2022 for foreign visitors). This policy shift, combined with pent-up demand fo...
