Abstracts

Air passenger traffic levels in 2023 demonstrate that consumers remain eager to travel, despite skyrocketing ticket prices. That said, the higher ticket prices, resulting from higher costs for operators, more robustly support value growth, while volume is not as strong. Within this context, consumers who are eager to travel are seeking cheaper ticket prices and deals, as they opt for “sun and sea” holidays, city breaks in other countries, or visiting family and friends living abroad. We also not...
