Abstracts

Following an uplift in price points in 2022, the rise in flight ticket prices slowed down in 2023 due to stabilising energy prices, high levels of competition on the landscape, and growing flight capacity. However, a return to 2019 prices is not expected, and consumers will need to adapt to higher price points moving forward. Low-cost airlines are the best performing in 2023, as they mostly serve European routes, which are the busiest. In addition, due to the structure of the businesses, these a...
