Abstracts

Alcoholic drinks packaging saw growth in its total unit volumes in 2022, driven entirely by the recovery of foodservice sales, with the retail channel seeing another year of decline, after recording a demand spike in 2020. The dynamic foodservice performance was due to the lifting of the country's COVID-19 restrictions on mobility and foodservice establishments. As consumers frequented restaurants and pubs regularly once again, glass bottles and kegs sold through the foodservice channel saw stro...
