Abstracts

Alcoholic drinks in Algeria recorded a positive performance in 2023, although the growth was relatively lower than in 2022. The price hikes, especially for wine and spirits, led to stronger growth in total value terms compared to total volume terms. The ongoing economic crisis resulted in reduced consumer spending power. Consequently, many consumers became increasingly price sensitive, opting for cheaper economy brands or turning to the illicit market, which offered more attractive prices.

Euromonitor International's Alcoholic Drinks in Algeria report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data (2019-2023), allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth.
