Abstracts

India was one of the few significant international markets to have registered a full recovery in alcohol drink sales in volume terms in 2022. The country's relatively young population played a pivotal role in this regard, setting it apart from markets with an older demographic profile where consumers are looking to reduce their alcohol intake. Indeed, volumes not only rebounded to pre-COVID-19 levels overall, but also in all major product categories. Besides the youthful demographic profile of t...
