Abstracts

In 2022, total volume sales of alcoholic drinks continued to improve following pandemic-related restrictions that were applied to on-trade establishments during 2020 and 2021, resulting in further impressive growth for the latter channel. On-trade sales in 2022 benefited from the first restriction-free year since the pandemic, helping to support further total volume growth across most categories. Beer and cider/perry remained below 2019 levels in total volume terms, having suffered in 2020 and 2...
