Abstracts

The COVID-19 pandemic had a major impact on the alcoholic drinks industry in Malaysia in 2020. For much of the year, bars, pubs and restaurants were closed due to lockdown, so that sales in the on-trade were very heavily impacted, losing more than a quarter of their packaging unit volumes in 2020. Many people are occasional drinkers and they consider drinking as a part of their social life when they visit bars and pubs. However, with these establishments closed due to COVID-19 lockdown, these oc...
