Abstracts

Glass bottles continued to be the dominant pack type in the Polish alcoholic drinks market in 2022, continuing to fight off the stiff competition from metal beverage cans. This is because the reputation of glass bottles is very high in Poland. Glass bottles have a long-standing association with quality and tradition in the alcoholic drinks industry in Poland. This is because consumers often perceive glass bottles as a mark of premium and high-quality products. Moreover, glass is inert and imperm...
