Abstracts

Following another sharp drop in analgesics sales in current value terms in 2018, the category performance continued to be negative in 2019, albeit with sales falling at a slower rate than a year earlier. The repercussions from the ban on OTC sales of codeine-based combination products continue to be seen, although the main collapse in sales of combination products - analgesics had already been seen prior to 2019. Some adult combination products can still be sold without prescription, such as Act...
