Abstracts

In 2023, there have been stock shortages for some analgesics in key distribution channels in Saudi Arabia, resulting from producers, suppliers, and/or distributors. As a result, end consumers have been switching to alternative products containing the same active ingredient, or those with a similar effect, impacting the growth of some brands and categories. However, these shortages are temporary, and unlikely to be significant, since alternatives can be found in the Saudi market, and new entrants...
