Abstracts

Demand for apparel accessories has notably increased in 2023 after three years of tepid sales during the pandemic. Following the reopening of Hong Kong's border, international tourists have gradually returned. As tourist consumption historically accounts for 20-30% of apparel retail sales in Hong Kong, the return of tourists will likely become the main growth driver of apparel accessories' recovery in the coming years. In particular, high-spending Chinese tourists will accelerate the sales recovery...
