Abstracts

Customs agents of La Guaira and Puerto Cabello reported that typical delays can vary between seven and 15 days, but in some cases last up to 30 days. Much of these delays arose after the government took over the operations of the ports in Venezuela. The delays are due to the problems with the automated customs system "Sidunea" as well as institutional delays as a result of activities from the Servicio Nacional Integrado de Administración Aduanera y Tributaria – SENIAT (National Administrator...
