Abstracts

Apparel and footwear is posting positive but slower current value and retail volume growth in 2023 compared to the previous year, as many consumers' needs/wants for new apparel and footwear have been largely fulfilled following the lifting of social distancing measures lifted and the greater resumption of out-of-home activities. In addition, ongoing economic instability in South Korea, due to high inflation and a murky outlook, is slowing demand for non-essential items in 2023.

Euromonitor International's Apparel and Footwear in South Korea report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level.
