Abstracts

Value sales at apparel and footwear specialist retailers were negatively affected in 2020 by the pandemic as consumers worked and studied remotely from home, reducing the need for new apparel and footwear. On the other hand, apparel and footwear specialist retailers registered robust retail value sales growth in 2021, as quarantine restrictions eased and consumers partly returned to their workplaces, such as horeca and offices. However, although this trend saw a reversal and sales grew, the chan...
