Abstracts

The pandemic significantly affected the sales of apparel and footwear specialist retailers, especially at the beginning of the pandemic, due to the total closure of the stores for over four months. Moreover, even after they were able to restart their operations, it was necessary to properly implement biosafety protocols and operate under established restrictions covering opening hours, capacity limitations, social distancing, mask wearing and the provision of disinfection stations.

Euromonitor International's Apparel and Footwear Specialist Retailers in Peru report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
