Abstracts

Turkey is a rapidly growing country which enjoyed high GDP growth in 2012 and as a result, disposable incomes in the country increased. As economic conditions became better for consumers, they spent more money on themselves, which favoured sales in apparel specialist retailers. In addition, the number of outlets increased, making products more widely available to consumers. Therefore, apparel specialist retailers saw further good current value growth of around 7% in 2012.

Euromonitor International's Apparel Specialist Retailers in Turkey report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
