Abstracts

Apparel specialist retailers registered only marginal growth in current value sales terms in 2012. While retail value sales started to rebound slightly, after the economic downturn in 2009 and 2010, the economic situation deteriorated in 2012. Thus consumers made more concerted efforts to economise. Nonetheless, the demand for apparel was supported by reduced prices as retailers offered a high number of special price promotions and clearance sales at the end of the review period. While the...
