Abstracts

Men's fashion saw a great development in 2012, in particular, underwear and shoes. According to the data provided by the French Institute of Fashion (Institut Francais de la Mode), this segment demonstrated growth of more than 10% in 2012. The trend is due to the general consumption tendency to indulge oneself with a purchase of accessories and more interest in men in their appearance in French society.

Euromonitor International's Apparel Specialist Retailers in France report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
