Abstracts

The trend towards chained retailers, which was present throughout the review period as a whole, continued to be the main story in apparel specialist retailers in the Netherlands in 2012. According to trade associations, larger players with more and bigger outlets continued to have considerable competitive advantages over smaller players, which had fewer opportunities regarding marketing and sales activities, and furthermore were often found in less favourable locations.

Euromonitor International's Apparel Specialist Retailers in Netherlands report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
