Abstracts

The majority of the local population in the United Arab Emirates abstains from the consumption of alcohol as per the tenets of Islam. As a result, apart from local consumption of non-alcoholic offerings, mostly non-alcoholic beer, the nation's alcoholic drinks consumption is accounted for by tourists and expatriates. In 2022, with the removal of restrictions on tourism and foodservice, as well as an influx of individuals into the United Arab Emirates given the harsh economic conditions globally,...
