Abstracts

Packaged food volume growth in developed markets (where the majority of food sales are generated) is expected to remain static over the next five years. This is forcing strategy makers to look beyond traditional growth markets to stay relevant, and find new pockets of growth through value creation in a new technological era. This briefing looks at where digital frontiers can be found and assesses which technological innovations are out there, and which will lead the way in food.

Euromonitor International's Assessing Digital Frontiers in Packaged Food For Future Growth global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Packaged Food market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends and identifies the leading companies and brands. It also offers strategic analysis on driving packaged food industry trends like health and wellness, premiumisation, convenience and value-for-money and how those trends influence factors like new product developments, packaging innovations, retail distribution and retail pricing both historically and into the future.

Product coverage: Baby Food, Baked Goods, Breakfast Cereals, Confectionery, Dairy, Edible Oils, Ice Cream and Frozen Desserts, Processed Fruit and Vegetables, Processed Meat and Seafood, Ready Meals, Rice, Pasta and Noodles, Sauces, Dressings and Condiments, Savoury Snacks, Soup, Spreads, Sweet Biscuits, Snack Bars and Fruit Snacks.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
