Abstracts

At US$100billion sales globally, skin care accounts for a quarter of the total beauty industry. Asia Pacific continues to generate half of total revenues, while Latin America has been the fastest growing region. Category dynamics have been driven by multiple factors, including the increased availability of face masks and devices to replicate salon results at home, while all-in-one offerings and more specialised solutions are gaining equal prominence to address the need for further added value.

Euromonitor International's Assessing Key Drivers Behind Skin Care Market Dynamics global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Beauty and Personal Care market and highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, packaging innovations, economic/lifestyle influences, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success. The report also explores developments in the premium vs mass/masstige segments, and the evolution of novel beauty concepts.
