Abstracts

Looking at companies' and brands' performances in retail sales value terms rather than volumes offers a very different perspective on alcoholic drinks. In the first of two briefings, Euromonitor International looks at the overall alcoholic drinks market in value terms, before focusing on the beer and cider/perry categories, emphasising that it is not all about the volumes.

Euromonitor International's Assessing the Value of Alcoholic Drinks: Part One - Beer and Cider/Perry global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Alcoholic Drinks market in both the off-trade and the on-trade, it highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading companies and brands by total volume, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, packaging innovations, economic/lifestyle influences, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success.

Product coverage: Beer, Cider/Perry, RTDs/High-Strength Premixes, Spirits, Wine.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
