Abstracts

Attica Bank, the only Greek bank that was recapitalised 100% with its own funds, is looking for a strategic investor and other investors in order to increase its stock capital. In addition, the bank is trying to generate internal capital in order to strengthen its capital base and continue its independent, autonomous course. Its immediate 2014 goals include the effective management of its loan portfolio and the reduction of operational costs, as well as the cost of deposits, in order to raise...
