Abstracts

Baby and child-specific hair care products witnessed a decline in sales volume for the eighth consecutive year in 2022 in Argentina, primarily due to the country's persistent economic challenges. Looking to save money, consumers increasingly opted for products that the entire family could use instead of purchasing non-essential items such as shampoo specifically designed for children. Further, in 2022 many companies withdrew from the Precios Cuidados programme to prevent a decline in profit marg...
