Abstracts

Baby and child-specific sun care was among the top performing categories across baby and child-specific products in Croatia during 2023, with volume sales rising strongly despite steep unit price increases over the course of the year. The main reason for the elevated demand for baby and child-specific sun care is fear of negative effects of excessive sun exposure, especially when it comes to children, who are more vulnerable to sunburn than adults. Furthermore, despite the high inflation that ha...
