Abstracts

In 2022, the competitive landscape for baby and child-specific products intensified, largely due to external investment in domestic baby products companies. This influx of funds allowed domestic brands to boost their reach, and as a result parents had a much wider range of brands available from which they could choose. For instance, domestic baby products company Baby Amore received funding from investors, which allowed the brand to expand its reach in 2022. Similarly, a major fmcg player, ITC L...
