Abstracts

In 2023, products with gentle formulation continued to see strong demand in baby and child-specific products, with consumers gravitating towards products with natural or plant-based ingredients. More and more consumers are steering away from products with harsh ingredients, with concerns that they might cause dryness, irritation, or itchiness. Ingredients such as synthetic fragrances, alcohol, sulphate, phthalates, soap, and parabens for example are becoming less popular. In line with this trend...
