Abstracts

During the review period baby and child-specific products gained momentum and thrived. Even during COVID-19, baby and child-specific products remained resilient despite the tough economic crisis within South Africa. This was because parents did not want to compromise on care for their babies and children, regularly replenishing their children's toiletries and other baby products, as they are regarded as essential items that they cannot do without. For this reason, sales of baby and child-specifi...
