Abstracts

Baby care performed the best in current value sales within beauty and personal care in 2010 due to certain differences in consumer attitudes. Firstly, the quality of baby care products is increasingly the most important factor as mothers put higher emphasis on quality care for their babies. Secondly, parents, who are the key purchasing group of baby care, are not willing to save money on their children, even during a poor economic climate. Finally, price-sensitivity of consumers is considerably...
