Other baby food grew by 12% in current value terms in 2017, consistent with the double-digit growth witnessed by this category over the review period. The growth of other baby food was driven by products targeting specific age ranges, as well as the expansion of ranges to also target older toddlers. Products in this category have also continued to focus on providing toddlers with a way to explore new flavours and textures to smooth the transition from baby food to standard food. Parents are also...
