Abstracts

In 2022, categories considered essential, such as baby wipes and medicated baby and child-specific products, emerged as the best-performing in baby and child specific products in current value terms. In both cases, their remarkable growth was primarily driven by price adjustments. Growth in baby wipes was marked by the polarisation of consumption – with trading down amongst lower-income consumers, and the expansion of claims such as sustainability and natural ingredients on the premium side of c...
