Abstracts

As seen in premium adult sun care, sales in baby and child-specific products were boosted by sun care sales thanks to the hot summer in France in 2022. Indeed, sun care suffered notably during the pandemic years, due to the lockdowns, and then followed by gloomy weather in 2021 when society started to reopen. Therefore, the combination of good weather and social freedom in 2022 caused a notable spike in sales of sun care.
