Abstracts

Inflation had a limited impact on demand for baby and child-specific products in Malaysia in 2022 with many families now seeing these products as regular necessities. Baby and child-specific toiletries was one of the most dynamic categories in 2022, in current value terms, with sales being backed by the rising number of head-to-toe product ranges. These products are favoured by parents as they are seen as convenient and economical, with no need to purchase both shower gel and shampoo separately.

Euromonitor International's Baby and Child-specific Products in Malaysia report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data 2018-2022, allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth. Forecasts to 2027 illustrate how the market is set to change.
